SUBJECT: Sportsfest 2023

Relative to Sportsfest 2023 from April 18 – 20, 2023, please be advised of the following:

1. faculty whose classes are affected by the various sports activities may facilitate asynchronous classes to ensure students have learning activities during their supposed class sessions; and,
2. students participating in the various sports activities may enter the campus in civilian attire during the captioned dates.

Let us support our DLA/DPE colleagues spearheading this calendared event.

Thank you very much.

SUBJECT: Lenten Week announcement, 2nd Term, 2022-23

Please be informed that all classes will shift to asynchronous online learning modality from April 3 to 5, 2023. Relative to this, may I please remind you of the following:

1. Complete lectures, readings, homework, short video teaching concepts, and other learning materials must be uploaded in the Google Classrooms during the captioned period. Kindly refrain from using other learning platforms for monitoring and auditing purposes.
2. Do NOT limit your activities to attendance checking or mere announcements during asynchronous class. You may utilize the virtual Classroom as discussion board or platform for learning engagement.
3. Consultations must be made accessible to the students during the asynchronous period.
4. Unless higher authorities issue a separate directive, all faculty must physically report onsite on the captioned dates.

Thank you. I wish everyone a meaningful Holy Week.
